Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

Fate this week dealt the Mississippi Coast another disastrous blow, the second within the short span of nine months, when fire destroyed approximately a third of the Bay St. Louis highway bridge, that section from the draw span to Henderson Point, the damage estimated at approximately one-half million dollars. . . . we give here briefly, a few facts about the highway bridge: It was completed in Feb., 1928, at a cost of about $850,000. . . . was actually opened to traffic for the first time on February 22, 1928. . . . was officially dedicated with a day-long celebration on Friday, March 2, 1928. . . . was built by the firm of Youman & Moore, Contractors, of Houston, Texas. . . . contains some 180,000 lineal feet of creosoted piling, ranging from 50 to 85 feet in length each—about 4,000 separate piles—the draw span is 200 feet long and weighs 220 tons. . . . the bridge is 24 feet wide over all, with 20 feet for roadway and 4 feet for foot path. . . . 50,000 galvanized iron bolts and 98,000 washers were used in construction. . . . for the hand rails 400 tons of steel were used. . . . for protection, each piling is encased in a vitrified clay pipe ranging in size from 15 to 21 inches—some 35,000 feet in all—filled in with 1300 cubic yards of concrete. . . . the above gives you some idea of the tremendous loss sustained by the fire of Sunday night. . . . whispering campaigns have never resulted in any good, so may we suggest to all candidates for office, in the coming primary election on July 10th, to refrain from this lowest of all forms of campaigning, keep your campaign clean and above board, so that afterwards no one can point a finger at you and say, "he is responsible for what happened, with some innocent person the victim of foul play intended for another." . . . don't forget the Church Fair this Saturday and Sunday, July 3rd and 4th on the Church grounds, rear of Our Lady of the Gulf Church. . . . just a suggestion Mr. Mayor: at present your garbage collectors are scheduled to pick up garbage each Tuesday and Friday morning, that's bad enough, just twice a week during the summer, but what's worse, some time they don't get around at all, and folks just let the smelly stuff stay on the sidewalk overnight and by morning besides giving out a terrific odor all through the night the garbage is spread all over the neighborhood by stray dogs and cats—a beautiful sight for visitors—for the summer months at least, why not have your men collect garbage on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings and see that they get around to do it. . . . the Mississippi Power Company had restored electric power to Bay St. Louis exactly 41 hours after the main power line had been severed by the fire of Sunday night and plunged the whole town into darkness. . . . this weekend, being a three-day holiday because of the Fourth of July falling on Sunday, should bring many visitors to our town because of the fact that they will not be able to drive any further down the Coast. . . . After being without electric lights, radios, movies, electric refrigeration, and the like for several days this week many youngsters are wondering what grandma and grandpa must have done to pass away the time in their younger days. . . . well, we are wondering, too, but they got by as well if not better than we do today.

Fire Destroys Section Of Hancock-Harrison County Bridge

Bids To Be Received By Highway Department on July 16th For Construction—Estimated Damage Will Exceed $500,000.00—Temporary Ferry Suggested

More than one half mile of the Hancock-Harrison County bridge was destroyed by fire of an unknown origin Sunday Evening. The fire was discovered about 7:00 o'clock and spread so rapidly being fanned by a strong breeze, that it was impossible for fire fighting apparatus to do any effective work. Engines from Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian and Gulfport came to the aid of the fire boat of the Mississippi Highway Department.

Highway Commissioner John D. Smith, and Sidney T. Roebuck, chairman of the Mississippi Highway Commission, together with Walter Spiva, Director of the Commission, R. A. Harris, Chief Engineer, S. A. Tomlinson, Construction Engineer, C. S. Hill, Bridge Engineer, and J. W. Kornum, Southern District Engineer, made an inspection of the burned structure Monday morning.

It was estimated that the cost of restoring the burned part of the bridge will exceed $500,000.00, and Commissioner Smith estimated that it would require about six months time to complete the work, once it begins.

The Highway Department has issued notice for bids for the repair work, to be received by the department on July 16th. The specifications will follow the same type of construction with creosote piling and timbers.

Commissioner Smith stated, that funds for the construction of a new concrete bridge were not available at this time, and that it would take approximately three years for the construction of this type of bridge, and that the costs would exceed $5,000,000.00.

Light traffic is being routed through Kiln and Fenton to DeLisle, Pineville and to Highway 90 at Menge Avenue at Pass Christian. This road is now under construction by the State Highway Department, as a farm to market road, and it is being rushed to completion and Mr. Smith stated that he planned to have a surface treatment applied as soon as practicable. Gravel at the present time is being put on the road, and the worst sections are being gravelled first.

All heavy traffic is being routed through Poplarville and Hattiesburg. The Pass Christian Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club have suggested to the Department that a temporary ferry service be installed, using the west section of the Bridge as a ferry landing, and Commissioner Smith said, that this was being checked to see if a boat was available and if it would be workable.

The Womans Society of Christian Service will handle the concessions at the City Hall on Election Day. Coffee will be served from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 9 o'clock to the time that the polls close, soft drinks and sandwiches will be served.

Highspeed energy moves for restoring electric service to the Bay St. Louis area began within minutes after the burning of Highway 90 bridge over the Bay of St. Louis. Sunday night destroyed the 22,000 volt line which is the source of electric supply to the section.

Emergency contract crews and crews loaned by Alabama Power Company were in movement during Sunday night and by Monday morning approximately 80 men were speeding completion of 7 miles of new line from Bay St. Louis to the Gulfport-New Orleans 110,000 volt transmission line passing north of the City.

Under the plans for emergency service restoration, a section of this 110,000 volt circuit was temporarily energized at 22,000 volts from Gulfport and when the new circuit, which was started several weeks ago from Bay St. Louis is completed, service will be resumed.

Chief difficulty in completing this line was the Bayou La Croix crossing, for which an emergency permit was immediately granted by the U. S. Engineers following the fire.

The new construction which greatly expedite service restoration has been in the company's construction program since 1946, according to company officials, but has been delayed by difficulty in securing materials and rights-of-way. However, all but approximately 1 1/2 miles of the line had been completed prior to Sunday.

Final completion of the new source of power to Bay St. Louis on a permanent basis cannot be accomplished until mid 1949, the Company reported, due to the long range difficulty in securing transformers for the 110,000 volt to 22,000 volt substation required north of Bay St. Louis. These transformers have been on order for approximately 2 years.

News of the campers at St. Joseph Academy proves their stay in Bay St. Louis is most enjoyable. Among their activities for the week was motoring to Gulfport on Wednesday of last week where they boarded the Lillian Holley, a pleasure boat, and cruising to Ship Island to spend an all day picnic.

Amateur night proved a huge success with little Miss Jeanne Merihl of the Cricket Group winning the

OUR APPRECIATION AND THANKS TO

We, the friends of Earl Ramond, candidate for Mayor in the coming election, take this means of acknowledging grateful appreciation for his untiring efforts to acquaint us with unknown facts concerning our City's Administration through the past years. We know that this was not done in a few minutes time nor even a day. Many hours in careful search and study went into the information with which he has furnished us.

We sincerely feel that all upright citizens who are genuinely concerned about the future of our city have welcomed this enlightening information as we have. We believe that you, too, are beginning to seriously consider the lack of our city's advancement with others due to the facts as presented. We believe that he has rendered us a service of inestimable and priceless value which will be of longlasting consequence to us now.

Having been properly informed, we are prepared to cast our vote for this man who has had the courage and determination to face all unpleasantness in rendering us this splendid service. We are thoroughly convinced that he is most capable of revitalizing us and beginning a period of improvement and advancement for Bay St. Louis. We hope and believe that he will be your choice as he is ours.

CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR

Hello, Folks:

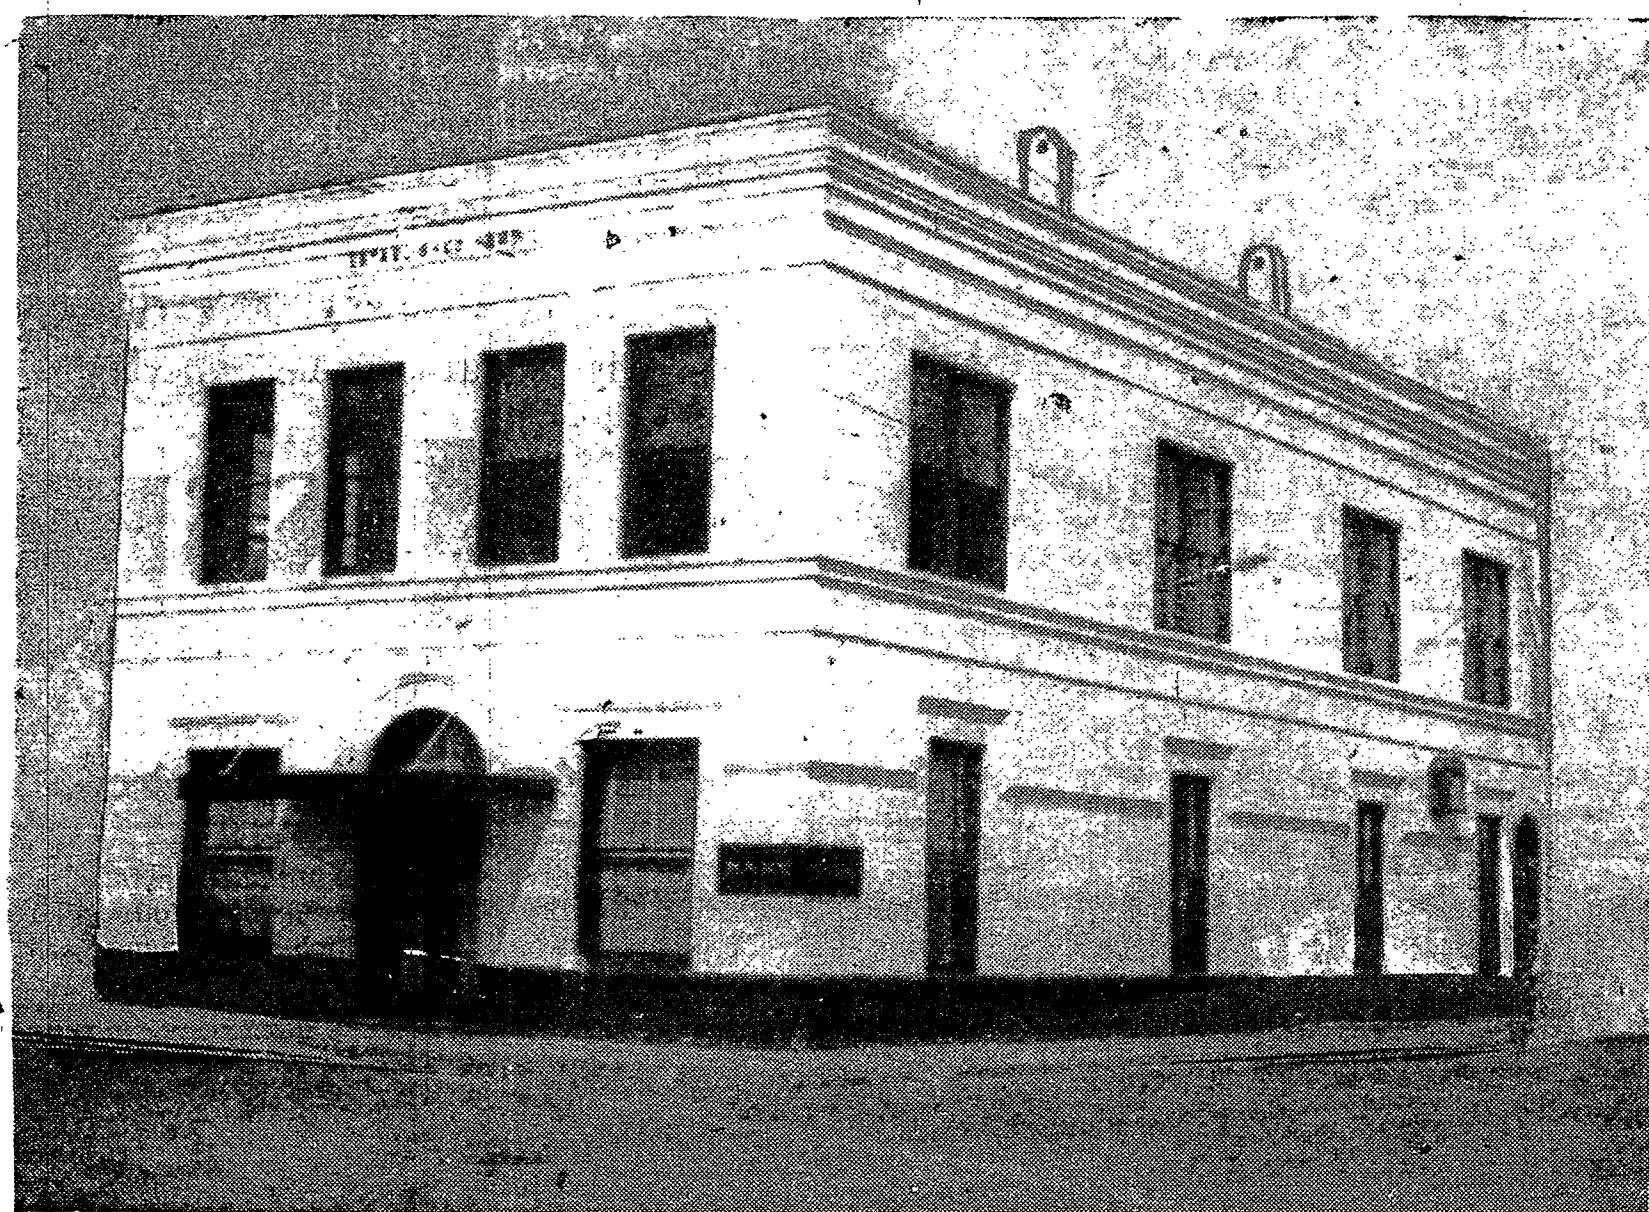

July 10th will be a very important day for the voters of Bay St. Louis, for on that day each citizen has an equal opportunity to approve or disapprove of the manner in which our City's affairs have been administered. You may have said a little and thought more about the conditions, but on this day you will have the chance to do something about it.

In the eyes of civilization a city either moves onward or backward. There is no such thing admitted as a period of standing still. Consider our city, then. There has been no forward movement, and if we cannot be considered as standing still, we definitely are moving backward. The only advancement so far as I can see is in taxes. They are higher than ever and a proposed increase in the air. We have seriously considered all the major issues—beaches, recreation areas, drainage, and street improvement. I am certain, too, that you have noticed some of our streets getting slight blacktopping just now—at a strategic time preceding the election date. However, I know the people of Bay St. Louis for the fine, straight thinkers they are. I am sure that you will not be fooled by these few days of hard work at this time which should have been done during the past years. Your intelligence will note that two weeks of hard work are hardly enough to keep a city operating for four years. We need someone in this Mayor's office who will give us year round service for the four year period, the same service you are getting right now.

This election should be given your deepest consideration and most honest vote. As you are well acquainted with the manner in which our city has been run in the past, I am positive that you will rise to your duty and obligation as an American Citizen and vote for the man who will see that things are executed in a proper manner—not in the manner of a few, but toward the advantage of all.

Your Independent Candidate,

EARL F. RAMOND.

Main Crop

Trees are South Mississippi's main crop. From Virgin forest to the formation of towns and cities, they produced our wealth and sustain our prosperity.

First it was lumber and turpentine, then pine stumps yielded their stored-up pitch to naval stores and the channels of commerce. Now millions of cut over acres are in reforestation or are in pecan and tung nut groves.

In one part of the land the good earth unfolds to form plains or prairies, originally in grass. In another, as in our Coast country, nature provides conditions perfect for the growth of trees and planted a forest. And man succeeds best wherever he follows the forces of nature.

On the West's great plains, men grow grain or grass, while South Mississippi is a tree country. A soil that grows trees, naturally, must have within it the stuff on which they thrive. And, unlike so many crops, trees reproduce themselves.

Reforestation is an investment holding rich promise in substantial dividends. When we capitalize more fully upon one of the fastest growing tree areas on the American continent, when we harness the soil, the sun and the rain to work for us, we make the most of our natural advantages.

As Mississippi forges ahead with increasing discoveries in oil and gas, leases and mineral rights help carry the tax burden for reforestation.

Make an investment in the future by preventing forest fires. Encourage those who strive and spend to make our lands productive. Put nature to work and let her compound the interest on a sound investment. Respect the property rights of others and make the most of our own idle acres.

Our original wealth was in a forest primeval and all the elements for its reproduction are still available. No economy on earth surpasses that of nature put to work. The easiest way to multiply the wealth of South Mississippi is to let it grow on trees. Let's conserve what we have and improve upon it.

Bygone Days

By UDELL FAVRE

It seems as though fifty-four years ago Bay St. Louis had more factories and other types of businesses than they do now; but doesn't it follow that progress goes along with the years and not degeneration and standstills and before our times the Bay had an electric plant; a big steam brick yard; a water works; an ice plant; fig and oyster canneries; several saw mills, the college and convent; a fine public school; woolen mill; two newspapers; five (white) churches; finest shell drives in the South; one job printing office; splendid fire department; First-class educational facilities; and beautiful homes. Bay St. Louis offered unequaled facilities and unexcelled advantages for the following, and invited 10,000 Northerners; a furniture factory; knitting works and a big first class Winter hotel. In those days and times they even invited new industries and payrolls to come into the town.

The Echo celebrated its second anniversary and excerpts from an article appearing in the paper are as follows: "We are here on the threshold of our third year with brighter prospects than heretofore. This goes to show that the people of Bay St. Louis know how to appreciate a good local paper, one that is fearless in all things and equal rights for all. We have nothing to promise you dear reader, for we have given you all our energy and labor to furnish a good local paper which we will continue to do as long as we have your cooperation."

Messrs. George Planchet and Joseph O. Mauffray, were on the sick list.

A Grand Soiree was given in Waveland for the benefit of the Waveland Public School. The committee on arrangements was composed of Messrs. Jules Favre, J. J. Barr, Richard Attaway, floor managers were Wm. Ruhr, Etienne Carver, and Charles Chadwick.

Miss May Edwards, who was visiting Pearlinton, spent the Christmas holidays with her parents.

Mr. John Edwards returned from Napoleonville, La., where he occupied a position on Elmhall Plantation.

Mrs. C. K. De Lappe and daughter spent New Years Day with Dr. and Mrs. L. A. de Montluzin.

A Grand Ball was given by the Kings and Queens of Waveland at the residence of Mr. Edwin Carver.

Very Rev. LeDuc, pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Church, celebrated his 60th birthday on New Years Day with a few guests for dinner.

Those present were Prof. Peter and John Hammersbach, Dr. W. B. Rohmer and son, Capt. Woods, and Mr. Manly Blaise.

On Friday, Jan. 5, Mr. and Mrs. Octave Foyard announced the birth of an 18 pound son.

Mr. John Osoinich had applied for a copyright for his Corn and Oats Lightning Calculator.

Miss Phelo Monti, one of the Bay's truly charming young ladies, left for the Crescent City to spend the Carnival holidays and visit friends.

A very important municipal election was to be held but there were no announcements made; the politicians were all very secretive about who was going to run.

"TOO MUCH SPEED" SAYS HIGHWAY PATROL HEAD

Col. T. B. Birdsong again reminds the motorists we are still having too much speed on our highways and also too many creeping or slow drivers. During the recent session of the Legislature, a maximum and minimum speed law was passed.

Maximum speed on open highways for cars, 60 miles per hour; for busses, 55 miles per hour; for trucks, 46 miles per hour; and pick-up trucks, not over 1/2 ton and not overloaded, same as passenger cars.

Minimum speed on open highways is 30 miles per hour.

For the benefit of out of State motorists, speed limit signs have been erected by the Highway Department on all highways entering the State.

All Patrolmen have been instructed to enforce the minimum as well as the maximum part of this law for the slow driver is just as much a menace to Public Safety as the speeders.

We hope the motoring public will cooperate not only by abiding by the laws, but all traffic laws—and help us to bring our traffic accidents to a minimum.

Miss Gleim Bride-To-Be Honored At Shower

Miss Eileen Gleim was the honoree at a miscellaneous shower given on Saturday afternoon June 26 by Mrs. James F. O'Neil at her Pass Christian home.

Miss Gleim looked most attractive in a trousseau dress of peach colored linen and lace and received her numerous gifts with her usual poise and grace.

The table where the guests were served was covered with a handmade imported cloth and centering it was a large antique bone china bowl filled with white shaggy Chrysanthemums and giant Shasta daisies.

Out of town guests were Messrs. George Lyons, Edward Dorries, Sidney Russell, Sr., Sidney Russell, Jr., and Miss Providence Lanasa of New Orleans; Mrs. E. B. Saurez of Gulfport; also a large number of friends from Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

Miss Gleim will be married to Mr. Samuel Woodruff Hand of Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Saturday, July

Realizing that time and circumstances will not permit me to contact each of you before election, I am taking this opportunity to request that you consider this a personal call in the interest of my campaign.

Permit me to thank you in advance for your support.

THANKS FOLKS!

The sudden fire of Sunday, June 26th which destroyed a large section of the Highway 90 bridge over the Bay of St. Louis occurred right in the midst of our construction on a supplemental power source to care for service in the Bay St. Louis area.

Although transformers to complete the supplementary source, long on order, will not be available until 1949 the line was being built as fast as rights-of-way could be secured so that any emergency situation could be met, as this one was, by a temporary adaptation of facilities.

We regret that this disaster affecting highway transportation of the area should have caused an interruption in electric service.

We are grateful for your patience and understanding, however, and we are thankful too that construction had so far advanced on the new line that by the use of greatly augmented forces service could be restored with a much shorter interruption than might normally be expected.

FACTS FROM THE RECORD

To the Citizens of Bay St. Louis:

In my official announcement of last April 30th, I made the following statement: "I predict another eleventh hour attempt by our mayor to 'pave his way into the hearts of many voters' by embarking upon a hard surfacing spree in the very near future." The "Spree" is now on; the timing is almost perfect, two weeks before election. I do not claim to be possessed of any clairvoyant powers: my prediction was based solely on an examination of the present administration's past record. This is the same plan they have followed on the eve of each of the three previous elections. We can all recognize the true motive behind this last minute activity. It is so obvious, it borders on the ridiculous. During the past three and a half years there have been no improvements, no progress or development. Now, two weeks before election, there is a flurry of activity, black top is being literally poured into several strategic spots which have been in need of relief for the past several years. I sincerely hope that not one voter will allow himself to be influenced by this feeble, last minute attempt to gain support. Remain determined to rid Bay St. Louis of an administration that has done little more than burden us with a huge indebtedness and high taxation.

When the present administration took office in 1933, we had a levy of 23 mills. During the past 16 years, the burden has been steadily increasing.

Our levy at the present time is 43 1/4 mills: almost doubled. Here is what we have to show for it: a bonded indebtedness of $186,500; (this does not include $186,000 which we still owe for our Gas Distribution System); a water works system which is inadequate; inefficient police and fire department; poor sewerage and drainage conditions which pose a serious health problem; miles of beautiful beach front with no sign of a municipal pier, bathing beach or small craft harbor; a community without a single payroll industry; an unfair and antiquated assessment roll and a tax rate which is so high it makes one shudder to think of it.

Mr. Blaise states in his platform, and I quote: "You know what you have, don't chance a change." The first part of this statement is very true; the second part is an insult to the intelligence of the voters of the City of Bay St. Louis. Mr. Blaise obviously intimates by this statement that the people of Bay St. Louis will have an opportunity of expressing a choice between TWO EVILS on July 10th; this most definitely is not the case. Mr. Blaise has several opponents in this race whose educational background, qualifications and reputations are of the highest type; men who are honest, capable and progressive. So the element of "chance" should not enter into the picture at all. If we know what we have then our course is most evident—vote intelligently, VOTE A CHANGE. I respectfully submit my qualifications for your consideration and sincerely assure you that a vote in my behalf will eliminate all elements of "chance" in casting an intelligent ballot.

During the closing days of this campaign, there may be all sorts of rumors and insinuations circulated. Disregard them; remembering the FACTS; weigh them carefully and vote your convictions.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN A. SCAFIDE.

JOHN A. SCAFIDE, Candidate For Mayor

A. & G. THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY "UNCONQUERED"

With Spectacular Action, And Thrills.

Sunday and Monday the long-awaited, much heralded Cecil B. DeMille picture, "Unconquered," will arrive at the A. & G. Theatre, and it really is something to see! It is easy to understand why the veteran movie-maker took three years' time to prepare and film it, for it is the most spectacular of his many great pictures, and the most entertaining.

Filmed in Technicolor, this Paramount picture set in pre-Revolutionary days, co-stars Gray Cooper and Paulette Goddard who are given important support by Howard Da Silva, Boris Karloff, Cecil Kellaway and Ward Bond. Since every movie fan is familiar with DeMille's flair for handling crowd scenes, it is probably unnecessary to mention the cast of thousands, present in "Unconquered" as in all other of the great producer-director's films.

Cooper, who seems to be the number one film delineator of America's heroes, is seen as the brave patriot and frontiersman, Captain Chris Holden. As Holden he has enough excitement and adventure to fill half a dozen average-scale pictures. In addition, Cooper has the great privilege of playing gallant hero to and romantic interest of lovely Miss Goddard.

The story of "Unconquered" based on a novel by Neil H. Swanson, takes place in 1763 in the vast wilderness region of the Alleghenies, the hub of which was brave little Fort Pitt, now the great City of Pittsburgh. The Indians are resentful of the pioneers, a resentment that is fanned by trader Garth (Howard Da Silva) who sees in the steady growth of the white population a threat to his fur empire.

Holden is aware of Garth's duplicity and is determined to keep him from stirring the Indians to a large-scale attack on the forts. The two men's enmity reaches even greater heights with the arrival of Abby Hale (Paulette Goddard), sentenced by the English courts to fourteen years of slavery in America in the service of whoever buys her at public auction. Possession of Abby, and her affections, plus the eventual uprising of the Indians cut out Holden's work for him. How he saves Abby, first from Garth, and then from the Indians and how he helps lift the siege of Ft. Pitt makes "Unconquered" a truly great film thriller.

OLD-AGE AND SURVIVORS INSURANCE

"Social Security," as it is used loosely, means many things. Used properly, it is the group name for all of the various programs that are intended to help relieve the effect of specified social hazards over which the individual has little or no control. Each of these programs has a definite purpose and a specific name. In for many instances the general term "Social Security" is applied to a special purpose program.

Old-Age and Survivors Insurance is the specific name of the program under which the Federal Government pays monthly benefits to an insured retired 65 year old worker and eligible members of his immediate family; and to the eligible survivors of a deceased insured worker, regardless of the age at which the worker dies. The payment of these monthly benefits during the years they are most needed, to replace in some degree the loss of income resulting from old-age and death, is the primary purpose of the program. If however, there is no one who is eligible for monthly benefits during the month in which the insured worker dies, a single lump-sum death payment will be made, with later monthly benefits payable in some cases. It is this program, to which, at present, employees contribute one per cent of their taxable payrolls.

The file office of the Social Security Administration in Room 11, of the Salloum Building, has Harrison, Jackson and Hancock counties as its service area. It is the Gulfport Field Office to which residents of these counties should bring or send their applications for original or duplicate account number cards, questions about their individual wage records, and notices of changes or correction in their names, dates and places of birth. It is the office to which wage earners and their families should bring their questions regarding their rights and possible benefits under the program. Every wage earner, when he reaches age 65, should visit his field office whether or not he plans to retire.

Also, survivors of deceased wage earners should get in touch with the field office in a reasonable time after the death, preferable within the month following.

knocking Mr. Smith down. He sustained a serious fracture of the lower bone in his right leg for which he was treated at the Kings Daughters Hospital here. He has been discharged but his leg is in a cast which he will have to wear for sev-

NITROGEN CAMPAIGN
MOVES FORWARD

The Mississippi Farmers' Campaign to build a nitrogen fertilizer plant in Mississippi suggested upward today, when it was announced at State
Headquarters by Owen Cooper,

Chairman, that the two million dollar mark for stock subscriptions had been reached. Mr. Cooper stated that total subscriptions to date in 52 counties reporting was $2,003,885.
In addition to this amount, he said, already secured, these same counties indicated that over $300,000 additional capital will be invested before the corporation is organized on August 25th, and that an additional $1,647,460 worth of stock will be taken this fall if stock is available at that time.

It is conservative to estimate that these 52 counties which report approximately 70 percent of the agriculture population in the state will invest in excess of two and one-half million dollars before the campaign closes; on this basis, the remaining 30 counties should invest approximately three-quarters of a million, making a minimum total of $3,500,- 000, enough to assure the building of a plant.

The success of the statewide campaign is due largely to the individual initiative and activity of the farmers themselves. Farmers over the state realize the need for an adequate and constant source of low cost nitrogen.
They further realize the only sure way to secure this much needed nitrogen is to provide their own source of supply. Faced with this challenge, the farmers have put themselves to the task of providing that source of supply and have made splendid progress, Cooper concluded.

Never Again!

Every once in awhile, when I'm visiting a so-called "dry" county where legal beer has been voted out, I hear leading citizens say: "Never again!
We'll never vote to prohibit the legal sale of beer again!"

Most of these folks thought they did right when they voted legal beer out in a local option election. You can't blame them because every man has a right to his own opinion. But it's good to see that, after giving beer prohibition a good chance to prove its intended values, they have come to the realization that beer prohibition creates a nappy hunting ground for the bootlegger who has no respect for temperance, moderation, or for the law.

Citizens who live where the legal, controlled sale of beer is permitted, have no remorse, as far as beer is concerned.
They know that beer is a beverage of moderation and that it can be handled openly and above board under legal control and without detriment to the community.

World's Heavyweight

Walcott—Also "The Noose Hangs High"

There's good noos (e) today, folks. For those two masterminds of screen mirth, Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, will arrive in town Wednesday and Thursday at the Orte Theatre in their latest fun frolic, Eagle Lion's "The Noose Hangs High" which is a ninety-minute laugh-loaded, fun-free-for-all.

This time Abbott and Costello are mistaken for Speedy Service messengers and are hired by Joseph Callen, tough bookmaker, to collect a $50,000 bet for him. The comics collect the money but learn that they are going to be held up by thugs and have the cash stolen from them. Panicky, they dispose of the cash in a face powder factory which is sending out samples to the women in town.

Surrounded by Assassins

Menaced by the two thugs on one side and by Callen on the other, Bud and Lou start on a hilarious house-to-house canvass to find the money until they catch up with tall and lissome Cathy Downs, who gave up her secretarial job to spend her windfall on a new wardrobe. Cathy offers to help the pair regain the money and they get involved with Leon Errol, an eccentric millionaire who unsuccessfully tries to help them reclaim the cash by betting on the races.

Finally, the desperate trio determine to face the music and choose an expensive nightclub in which to do it. The laugh-loaded climax.

Miss Mae Edwards Addresses Rotary On Work Of Library

Miss Mae Edwards made a short talk before the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club on Wednesday on the local library. Miss Edwards gave a short resume of the birth and growth of the library and how it is financed and the great need for a new library building with ample room for the more than 9000 books which form the library.

Miss Edwards made known that the city and county paid the salaries for Miss Crawford and herself and that the county furnished the room, lights, heat and telephone.

A letter of appreciation and thanks, was read by Mr. Scharff, from Cyril Fayard and Teddy Morel, Jr. who attended Boys State thanking the Rotary Club for sponsoring their trip there.

THIS IS OUR FINE HERITAGE

Let us guard it well, for there are malevolent forces at work to wrest it from us. They might continue to hail it as an American document—even perpetuate its parchment under glass. But they would destroy its very meaning; distort it with instruments to smother all freedom; cripple our right to liberty; and make our observance of anniversaries such as this Independence Day—a thing of the past.

Clermont Harbor And Lakeshore News

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dumon and daughter Connie from New Orleans, La., visited Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wesner, Sr., and family, Sunday for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Faustick, Jr. and son Frank III, have just returned from a motor trip to Washington, D. C., to visit Mr. Faustick's brother. They took in many interesting places along Sky-Line Drive through the smoky mountains, including the Luray Caverns.

The people of Clermont Harbor who contributed to buying oyster shells for the fishing reef want to thank Mr. Joseph C. Colson of Colson's Fish Market and Mrs. Mollere of Mollere's Service Station, Waveland, also Mr. Douglas Bourgeois of Supertane Gas Co., Bay St. Louis for their generous contribution so that our summer residents can enjoy some good fishing pleasure. Hancock County should be proud of such outstanding and progressive business people. Signed: Joseph P. Rousseau, chairman of committee.

Rev. Thomas J. Wesner, C. M.

Professor of American History, St. Louis Preparatory Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wesner, on Forest Avenue. Father Wesner is here for a 3 week vacation and expects to go a lot of fishing in that time.

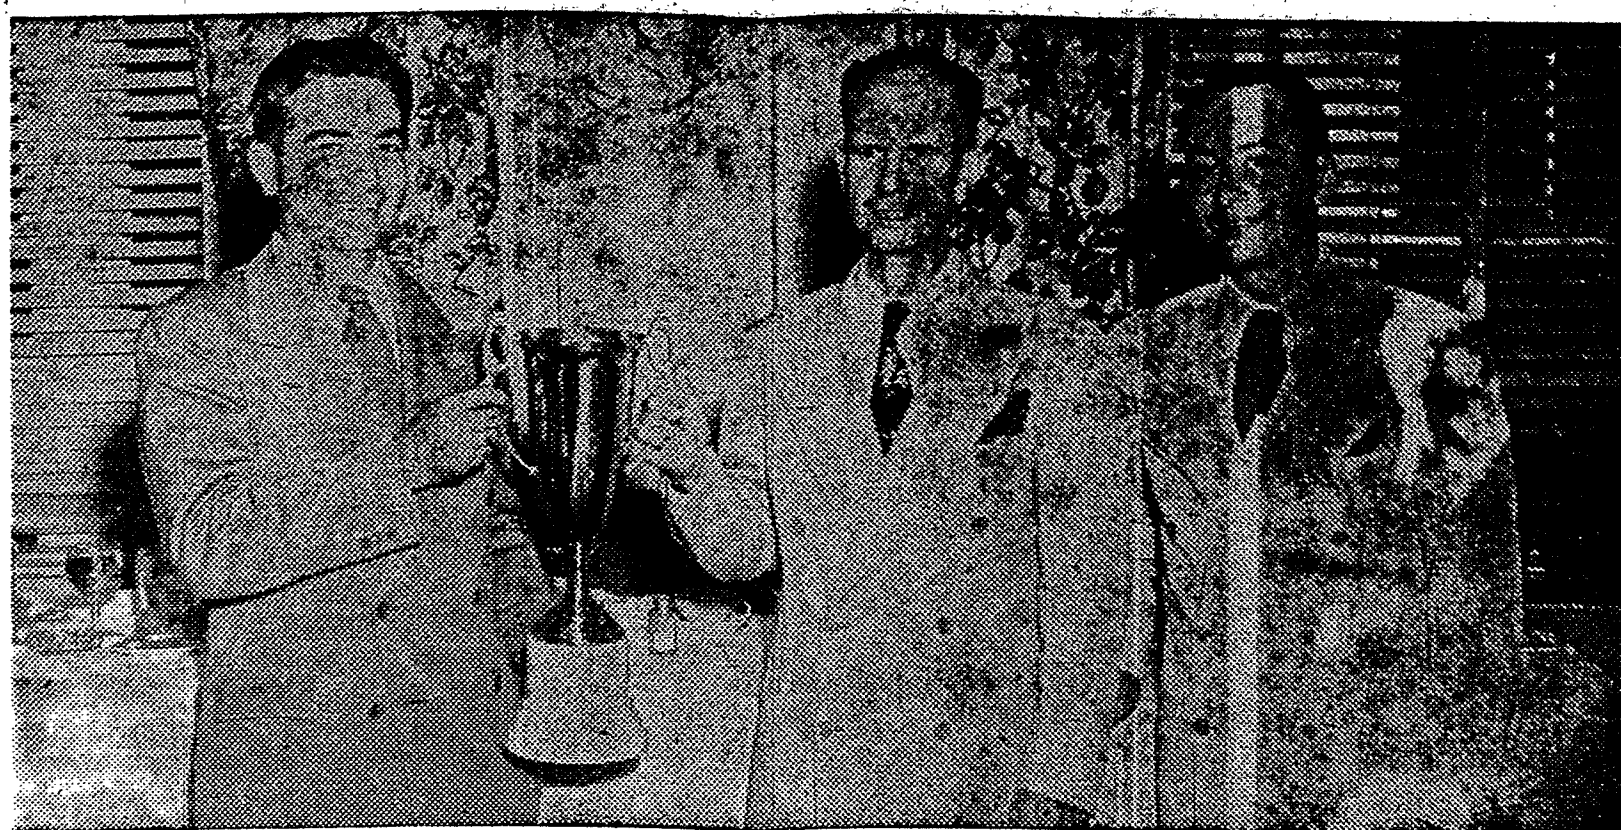

Mr. Richard Saba and his daughter, Gloria, went fishing on the Clermont Harbor Reef, Tuesday morning. Gloria caught a 2 1/2 lb. speckled trout, the largest fish caught that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Toso and children are occupying their cottage on Forest Avenue for the summer.

Our thanks and appreciation are extended to Mrs. Rae Cope of Clermont Harbor, president of the Blue Jean Garden Club, who personally donated four tubs of potted plants and flowers that have been placed on the concrete columns located at the intersection of Clermont Blvd. and Railroad Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard V. Ladner, their son Clyde and daughter Marius, from New Orleans, spent the week end with Mr. Ladner's father and sister, Mr. Wm. J. Ladner and Miss Ethel Ladner, Railroad Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Guerin and family were over for the week end.

Mississippi newspaper editors smile over just hearing the announcement that they are winners in the $900 cash contest on conservation of forests and wildlife sponsored jointly by the Mississippi Forest Service and the State Game and Fish Commission. The broad grin in the face of O. C. McDavid, first from left, is caused by having won $300 cash plus the handsome gold loving cup. McDavid is editor of the Wilkumite Record, Clotier, Miss. Edgar Crisler, of the Port Gibson Reveille, Port Gibson, assists McDavid in holding the cup while he wins $100. Stokes Sanders, Jr., of the Star Herald, Kosciusko, wears a $150 smile brought on by that amount of prize money. Editor D. E. Hardin, of the Itawamba County Times, Fulton, who won $200 in prize money was unable to be present because of illness. The cup and awards, which were made for active participation in a conservation news and pictorial publicity campaign, were presented at the annual banquet of the Mississippi Press Association, Biloxi, June 11, 1948. (Photo by Hendrix Dawson, State Game and Fish Commission.)

they have just completed their home on the beach and Forest Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carr and family are now occupying their new home on the beach near the Harbor.

Mr. Sidney Prendergast from New Orleans, is over for a few days of fishing.

Miss Gita Grayson from New Orleans, is spending a few days of her vacation with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rousseau on Oak St.

Mr. Joseph Cervat is now occupying his new home "Chateau Gay" in Lakeshore.

Mr. and Mrs. David Graham are now in their new home in Lakeshore. The Grahams are planning to beautify their grounds with a flower garden. They have a start with one zenia plant Mr. Graham discovered a few days ago. So far the plant is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Montgomery have a very pretty flower garden, also a large vegetable garden. Mrs. Montgomery picked 30 lbs. of tomatoes from her tomato plants one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. (Rudy) Smith, Jr., and son Rudy III, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wallace and sons, Jeff, Jr., Gary and Richie were spending the week end at the Smith's home on Clermont Blvd.

Mrs. Karl Saleeby and children are occupying their home on Railroad Avenue, for the summer. Mr. Saleeby will join them on week ends.

GROWING BOYS — GROWING TREES

The pulpwood industry, through the Southern Pulpwood Conservation Association, is providing for the third consecutive year, one week's camps at which the farm youth of the South learns how to better care for and treat the trees growing on his farm. Members of the Association guarantee the expenses of all camps, and are assisted in a few instances by non-member pulp mills, the lumber industry, forestry organizations, and landowners.

These camps are administered by the State Forestry Departments which provide the teaching staff and arrange the forestry subjects to be taught. The boys are selected to attend the camps on the basis of outstanding forestry work performed the previous year on their farms as judged by officials of the extension services and vocational agricultural

Defeat Hattiesburg 3-1

Wednesday Afternoon

The American Legion Rock-A-Chaw baseballers bounded back with a vengeance, after losing their opening game to Hattiesburg, by decisively defeating Picayune last Friday by the lopsided score of 29-0. The Rocks got a total of 21 hits in the game.

In the crucial Hattiesburg game Wednesday, the locals had to win to stay in the running. They had blown their initial game to the Hubbers by an 18-11 score and another loss to them would have wound up the Rocks chances for a pennant winner. The seventh inning trailing by a 1-0 score, Luc led off with a walk and 5 hits followed, with Hattiesburg Player AB R H E

During this campaign, it has been my purpose to see each and every voter to discuss my candidacy for the office of City Commissioner. If, for some reason, I should not see you personally in the remaining time before the primary on JULY 10th, it is hoped that you will understand the immense task involved, and will accept this article as a personal message to you.

The following is a short resume of my past life, and a brief outline of the proposals I am in favor of for the betterment of the City.

I am 34 years of age, and a lifelong resident of Bay St. Louis. I am a family man, and just recently completed a new home on Phillips Street. I received my education in our local schools, and graduated from St. Stanislaus in 1933. From 1934 to 1940, I was employed in the Hancock Bank, of this city. In November of 1940, I resigned my position at the bank to enter the U. S. Army as a private. I was commissioned in 1942 and remained on active duty until February 1946. During my army career, I held positions requiring both executive and administrative ability. Forty-two months of my service was in the European Theatre of Operations. At the present time, I hold the rank of Major in the Officers' Reserve Corps.

If elected to the office of City Commissioner, I will conduct my office on a strictly business basis as I am qualified to do so. I am in favor of a thorough review of our property tax assessments, and a more equitable distribution made of these assessments. It would be my plan to keep the public completely informed at all times on all matters. Our water system is inadequate, and I am in favor of making the necessary improvements to increase our water supply. It is of vital importance to improve our City's streets and to restore our beach front at the earliest practicable date.

As previously stated, I am seeking this office as an independent candidate and you may be assured that I will cooperate and seek the advice of any citizen who is interested in the City's welfare. When you go to the polls on Saturday, July 10th, elect a man who is QUALIFIED for the office of City Commissioner, and who will devote his FULL TIME and EVERY EFFORT for the furtherance of the City's progress.

Closing Lesson United Nations Study Given Friday

At Episcopal Parish House

Conducted By The Womens Society Christian Service Of Methodist Church With Members of Episcopal Guild And Baptist Missionary Society Joining In Program—Mrs. Wm. Sellers Gives Talk On "The World Church And Peace"

The closing lesson on the United Nations study which was conducted by the Womens Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church was given on Friday of last week at the Episcopal Parish House with members of the Episcopal Guild and the Baptist Missionary Society joining in the program.

Mrs. William Sellers of Waveland gave a talk on "The World Church and Peace" the last chapter of the book "We The People" studied by the group.

In a short recapitulation Mrs. Sellers said that background, need and necessity, United Nations organizations structure and significance and value had been studied. The concluding lesson she said includes ideas about peace and a decent world order. She said that in order for Christian people to assist in bringing about peace and a decent order of living they should proclaim Christ crucified and risen; be the Kingdom of God; keep available the resources of God's spirit for a distraught world; be the conscience of society; be the agent of God.

Mrs. Sellers said "Although the task before the United Nations is enormous and frightfully complicated, it may simplify it for us if we think of it—and our own task with respect to it—as epitomized in some of the standing committees of the General Assembly: "Political and Security," Economic and Social" and "Trusteeship Council."

Mrs. Sellers also quoted a summary for the solving of the existing tensions, atomic energy and disarmaments, played up to by newspapers and newscasts from the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of churches which she thought might be helpful: "The elimination internationally of methods of intolerance which make it impossible for conflicting beliefs to subsist and be propagated in the world consistently with peace. The elimination from the United States national policy of certain prejudices and practices which unnecessarily create tension. Cooperation of the American and the Russian peoples at the scientific, economic, cultural and religious levels and cooperation of the United States government and the Soviet Union in the curative and creative talks worked out by the United Nations. Demonstrations and Democratic institutions which reflect the Christian doctrine of the sacredness of the individual personality can be made so vigorous and life giving, that all people will want them."

Mrs. Sellers said in closing "men in high places will have their part to play but the rekindled faith which alone can knit the torn fabric of the world must rise from the millions of common folk like you and me. In the end the task is yours and mine."

In the discussion that followed it was brought out that the Methodist church has taken a definite stand on conscientious objectors and has held the families of these people who draw no revenue from the government. This church is also cooperating with other churches and groups in their program for a united nation and peace.

The Episcopal church is educating parents to instill into the minds of their children, through constant training the great need and necessity for a lasting and enduring peace. This is done through the Guild of the Christ Child and takes the place of the cradle roll where babies were only enrolled and now have their part in the general scheme.

The Lambeth Conference was discussed. This conference, meeting in Lambeth, England, and is made up of all the Anglican Christians of the World Church Unity for Peace and what church people can do for world peace and world relief.

Another Agency for peace touched on was the Amsterdam Conference, meeting in Amsterdam in August. The conference is interdenominational and international with peace as its objective. All churches and nations will be represented in this conference.

This meeting was the second of the three joint meetings planned by the three societies for 1948, the third to be held in the Baptist church in the fall. The Episcopal ladies were hosts and served refreshments.

Mrs. N. C. Erwin, chairman Christian Social Relations presided at the meeting.

—Dr. and Mrs. James T. Thompson of Jackson, will spend the Fourth of July week end here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Delph. The Delphs will also have with them over the week end Mr. Delph's brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Delph and son Norbert of New Orleans.
